RANSOMED

By Stephen Jenks

Verse 1:

(I was) Kidnapped,
captured by sin and death
Desperate,
No way to come back
Hopeless,
Without a chance of recovery.

Tag 1:

But He saw me. . . .
He called me. . . .
He came for me. . . .
So that I might be. . .

CHORUS:

Ransomed!
The prison of death has been broken.
“It is Finished”
was spoken over me
Freedom,
And now my life has a reason

He gave up glory to die
His sacrifice paid the price
Now I am ransomed

Verse 2:

(He was) Re-jected,
brutally beaten and mocked
Murdered,
The truest heart the greatest cost
Dead,
Cover with the sin like a cloak

Tag 2:

But He arose. . . .
Death’s hold he broke. . . .
He lives in me. . . .
So that I might be. . . .

VERSE 1:

Light of God, light to man
You hold seven stars
in your right hand
And walk among the lampstands
Burning with eternal flame

CHORUS 1:

Shine Morning Star,
Show us the day of your appearing is nearing.
Bright Morning Star
You dawn upon a world not
Comprehending their darkness ending.
For you are the Morning Star!
For you are the Morning Star.

VERSE 2:

Word in flesh, alive in me
Truth ignite my heart with love's intensity
Like the sun causes night to flee away
Morning Star rise in me I pray

CHORUS 2:

Oh, Morning Star
Come display your radiance and beauty through me
Fiery Morning Star
Let your rays reveal your love and Glory. I'll tell your story

For you are the Morning Star.

MARCH ON (REMIX)

Words & Music by Stephen Jenks

VERSE 1:

You, O Lord, march through time.
To your heartbeat we march.
From every tongue, and tribe
To your heartbeat we march
We're on a journey,
Once lost, now found.
We look to heaven
And we cry out. . .

CHORUS 1:

March on, O King of the universe
(We are Yours, we are Yours) (Repeat)
In our hearts, in our homes
Would You make your glory known?
For You are God alone.
Jesus, our King, march on.

VERSE 2:

We seek Your face to lift the gates,
Release the chains.
Welcome the King, His glory bring,
"Jesus" proclaim
You changed our story
from filthy rags, to robes of white
We'll give you glory, as we cry. . .

CHORUS 2:

March in, O King Of the universe
(Take the land, take the land) (Repeat)
In Your glory, In Your power,
Would You descend this hour?
Let mercy fall like a mighty shower
Jesus our King, march on!

God, you took the lead with your people, when you marched out into the wild, Earth shook, sky broke out in a sweat; You were on the march. Even Sinai trembled at the sight of You on the move, at the sight of Israel's God. You gave the word; thousands called out the good news: "The enemies are on the run!" Sing, O kings of the earth! Sing praises to the Lord! There he is: Sky-Rider, striding the ancient skies. Listen—he's calling in thunder (Spoken word based on Psalm 68:7-8, 11, 32-33 MSG)

ZION'S CALL

Words & Music by Stephen Jenks

VERSE 1:

A promise was given,
To an old man named Abram.
I'll make you a great nation,
Through you I'll bring salvation.
And the voice that spoke in the wilderness,
Now cries to all who will hear.
Awake from your slumber you sleeper,
Be part of the promise revealed.

CHORUS 1:

Can you hear Zion's Call?
Hear it loud, hear it strong
Can you hear the Roaring One?
Arise and shine, arise and shine
Your light has come

VERSE 2:

A promise was given,
To a farmer named Amos.
He saw in a vision,
A land of abundance.
And the voice spoke of restoration,
A dwelling of God here with man.
Now will we in this generation
Be part of this glorious plan?

CHORUS 2:

Will you raise Zion's Call?
Live it out, sing it strong.
Will you join the roaring ones?
Arise and shine, arise and shine
Your light has come

VERSE 3:

The promise was carried,
Across generations.
A people once scattered,
Brought together as one nation.
Now a voice arises in violence,
To challenge the promise fulfilled
Will we sit in the darkness in silence?
Or will you lift up your voice and declare?

Chorus 3:

I will raise Zion's Call!
Live it out, sing it strong
I will join, the roaring ones
Arise and shine (6x)
Your light has come.
